

Waseskun Canadian School of Peacebuilding Bursary Application

DEADLINE MARCH 1

A distinguishing mark of the Canadian School of Peacebuilding (CSOP) has been creating space for Indigenous voices. Each year the CSOP has offered at least one course with a focus on Indigenous issues of peace and justice. In order to encourage Indigenous participation at the CSOP and to help make the CSOP a gathering place of Indigenous and non-Indigenous people across Canada, the Waseskun (the Cree word for “the moment after a storm when the sun begins to shine through”) Canadian School of Peacebuilding Bursary has been established to provide financial support to an Indigenous or Métis participant.

Funds for bursary assistance are limited. CSOP/CMU cannot guarantee any assistance, but will consider and assess each application carefully in relation to all other applications received.
